

“Living > Remembering”

Shouting farther, thinking of the last
Time only flies when you're looking at the past
Changes build up and life gets bitter
That is, if you compare the bitter to the better
Life's short, that's true, but don't waste your time thinkin'
That's ten more seconds of love that you're missin'
Memories may haunt but don't let them control
The things you care most and their price at the toll
